

Request for Reconsideration of Library Material

Please complete and return this form. The Director of Library Services will examine the material and its reviews in order to determine if action should be taken. Patrons are reminded that according to Middlesex County Library's policy (RES 1.19 Controversial Materials) "The Board recognizes that some materials may be regarded by certain individuals or groups as controversial, whether because of bias, frankness of language, political expression, or moral implications... The primary aim of materials selection is to establish a balanced collection which adequately represents various points of view on many subjects". You can find the entire policy on our website: library.middlesex.ca/about-us/using-library
